How often you've heard someone say:
"It couldn't have been much of a fire for I didn't see a line about it in the Star-Bulletin."

Have you ever thought then of how seriously this same line of reasoning might be applied to a piece of property which you may have for sale or rent?

Honolulu people look to the REAL ESTATE and RENTAL columns of the Star-Bulletin for reliable information on important properties just as they watch the Star-Bulletin news columns for reliable reports of important news events.

In your selling or renting property of sufficient importance to interest some Star-Bulletin reader?

This is equivalent to asking if it would be of interest to any English reading family in Honolulu, as practically everyone in or near Honolulu reads the Star-Bulletin, its advertising as well as its news.

Don't depend upon a newspaper of smaller circulation if you want quick results.

Use the Star-Bulletin and reach more homes than is possible through any other daily newspaper.
